Planning Priorities: The broad areas of emphasis or major directions within which the institution will undertake new initiatives and deliberately target change. There normally will be a relatively concise list of institution-wide planning priorities.	Goals: Specific, institution-wide, attainable achievements or milestones within established institutional priority areas. Most priority areas will have multiple goals.	Action Plans and Schedules for Completion: Specific plans and strategies by which the strategic plan's goals are accomplished. Necessary tasks must be identified, assigned to individuals and offices, and a schedule for their completion agreed upon.	Budget Linkages: A description of the manner in which institutional resource development and allocation is linked to strategic planning (not a description of the annual budget cycle). This element of the plan should answer the questions "How will we pay for this plan?" and "How will it affect internal budget allocation?" The plan should drive budget	Supporting Data: Succinct summaries of relevant knowledge informing the strategic plan and the institution's future. Lengthy appendices of data are not needed in the planning document submitted to the System Office.	Assessment Plan: A description of how the institution assesses basic academic skills at entry, student learning outcomes in general education and degree programs, and academic and administrative support programs/functions, as well as a description of how the institution uses the results of assessment to improve its effectiveness.
